Your Antarctic Dream is Right Around the Corner

You've waited long enough to gallivant with Gentoos, paddle past glacier-covered landscapes, and spot leopard seals lounging on ice floes. Aurora Expeditions is departing for the white continent beginning 2022, which means it's time to check Antarctica off your bucket list.

You'll travel alongside palaeontologists, marine biologists, and like-minded thrill-seekers. Discover remote, half-submerged islands by Zodiac™. Learn the maritime history of the Falklands' charming capital with its hidden coves and rugged coastline. And venture so far south you'll experience nearly 24 hours of daylight to soak it all in.
